

As a NSW Justice of the Peace you are invited to a

Free JP Training Afternoon

Saturday, 28th May 2022

in the Dougherty Centre, 7 Victor St

Chatswood

1.30 - 4.45pm

Topics

- Divorce applications
- Probate applications
- JP Public Desks - what do volunteers need to know?
- Q&A Panel session

Who should attend?

- JPs who want to update and check their knowledge and put questions to the experts
- JPs who are considering joining a public desk and want to know what it entails

The program is free of charge. Presenters volunteer their time & Willoughby Council is providing the venue. Afternoon tea will be provided and a small donation is requested to assist with the costs.

Presenters

Meryl Kane: State Vice-President NSWJA

Kathryn Leaney: President Ashfield-Burwood Branch, Member of NSWJA Training Team

Geoff West: Training Officer LNS Branch, Member of NSWJA Training Team

Registration:

Space is limited & registrations are required by 23 May to "Training Day" at lowernorthshore@nswja.org.au

Queries to Geoff West on gnwest@bigpond.net.au

Local JPs volunteer

on public desks in the Lower North Shore to provide a much needed & appreciated free service

Would you like to join us?

Support and training provided to JPs.

For more information, contact Peter Douglas on peter.douglas@bigpond.com.