

JP Public Register – find a Justice of the Peace

You can find a Justice of the Peace (JP) using the online JP Public Register. You can search by postcode, name of a JP, language spoken and JP registration number.

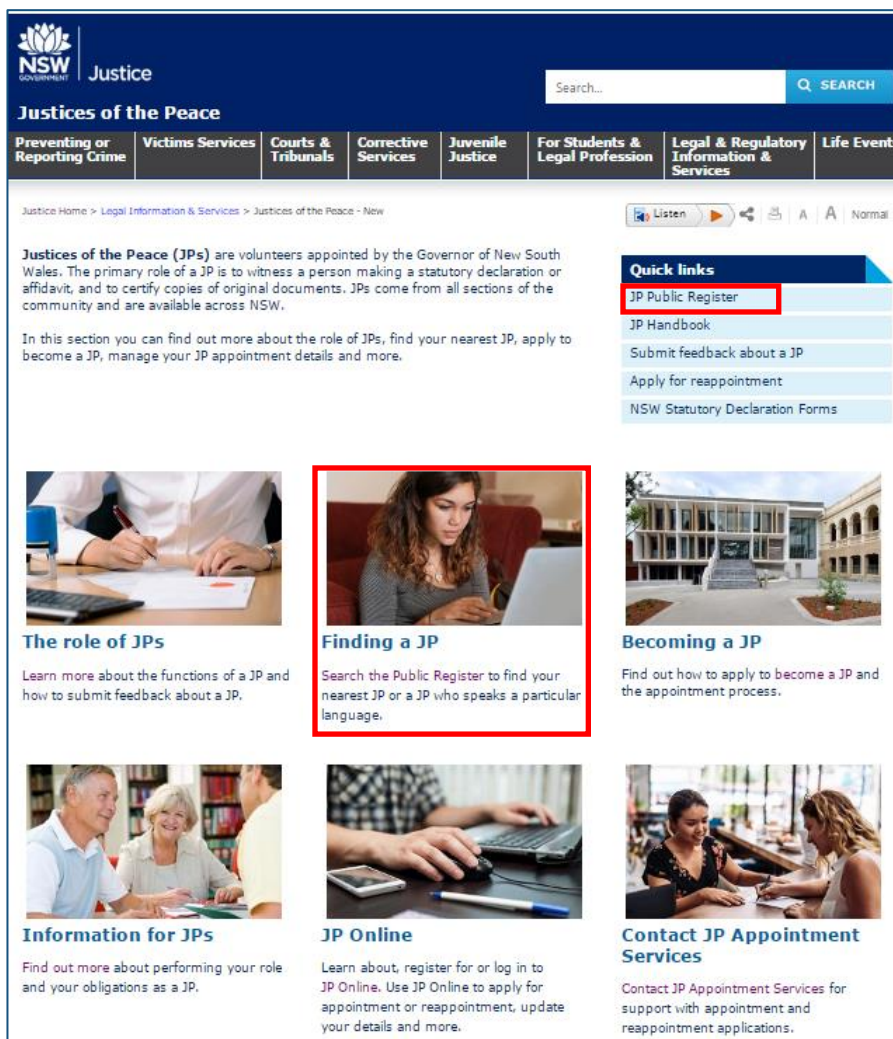

The register lists a JP’s location, availability and telephone number. Please note that JPs are volunteers and may not be available at all times.

Follow the steps below to use the JP Public Register.

Step 1: read and accept the terms of use

Go to www.jp.nsw.gov.au and select JP Public Register from the Quick links on the homepage.

Alternatively, you can also find a link to the register in the Finding a JP section.

The JP Public Register will open in a new window.

Read and accept the Terms of Use, then select I accept.

Welcome to the NSW Justices of the Peace (JP) Register

This online register is provided under the Justices of the Peace Act 2002. It includes only current JPs in New South Wales.

Tips for contact with JPs on the register

Ensure that a NSW JP is authorised to witness your documents. The JP Handbook provides guidance on what services a JP can provide and can be found here.

- Contact JPs at a reasonable time (between 8am and 6pm).
- Ask the JP when and where they are available to provide JP services.
- Advise the JP in advance if you have a large amount of documents for witnessing or certifying (you may have to make an appointment).
- Have all your paperwork ready for the JP, ensuring that your documents are not pre-signed.
- Have identification documents ready for the JP if necessary.
- Be mindful that JPs do not provide legal advice.

Your Acceptance of the Terms of Use

If you wish to proceed to access the Public Register of JPs you will need to first confirm that you have read the Terms of Use and that you agree to abide by them. You may do this after reading the Terms of Use by choosing the below confirmation.

If you have not read the Terms of Use or if you have read them but do not agree to abide by them, you are not authorised to access the Public Register of JPs.

I have read the Terms of Use and accept them as a condition of my accessing the Public Register of JPs.

Step 2: enter search details

Type details into the fields you would like to search. You can search a single field or multiple fields. Search multiple fields to narrow your results.

Select Search to continue.

Tips for using the public register

- Select the fields you would like to search.
- You can select a single field or multiple fields.
- When searching multiple fields, if you select 'Language' and 'Postcode' for example, your search will return JPs who are available in that postcode and speak the language you selected. If you select only 'Postcode', it will return JPs who are available in that postcode.
- When searching the 'Day Available' field you can only search one day at a time, if you require a JP on two days (e.g. Monday or Wednesday) you will have to do separate searches for Monday and Wednesday.
- Searching multiple fields at the same time will return more tailored results. There are no limits on how many fields you can select.
